It also describes your rights as they relate to your protected health information (“PHI”). This Notice is effective August 2019.

Understanding Your Health Record/Information

A record of your visit is made each time you visit The Villages Health. Typically, this record contains your symptoms, examination and test results, diagnoses, treatment and a plan for future care or treatment. This information, often referred to as your health or medical record, serves as a:

- Basis for planning your care and treatment
- Means of communication among the many health professionals who contribute to your care
- Legal document describing the care you received
- Means by which you or a third-party payer can verify that services billed were actually provided
- A tool in educating health professionals
- A source of data for medical research
- A source of information for public health officials charged with improving the health of this state and the nation
- A source of data for our planning and marketing
- A tool we can assess and continually work to improve the care we render and the outcomes we achieve

Understanding what is in your record and how your health information is used helps you to: ensure its accuracy, better understand who, what, when, where and why others may access your health information, and make more informed decisions when authorizing disclosure to others.

Examples of Disclosures for Treatment, Payment and Health Operations (TPO)

We will use your health information for treatment.

For example, information obtained by a nurse, physician, or other member of your health care team will be recorded in your record and used to determine the course of treatment that should work best for you. Your physician will document in your record his or her expectations of the members of your health care team. Members of your health care team will then record the actions they took and their observations. In that way, the physician will know how you are responding to treatment. We will also provide your physician or a subsequent health care provider with copies of various reports that should assist him or her in treating you.

We will use your health information for payment.

For example, a bill may be sent to you or a third-party payer. The information on or accompanying the bill may include information that identifies you, as well as your diagnosis, procedures and supplies used or other information as needed for payment purposes.

We will use your health information for regular health operations. For example, members of the medical staff, the risk or quality improvement manager or members of the quality improvement team may use information in your health record to assess the care and outcomes in your case and others like it. This information will then be used in an effort to continually improve the quality and effectiveness of the health care and service we provide.

Business Associates

There are some services provided to our organization through contracts with Business Associates. Examples include an Electronic Medical Record (EMR) system, billing company, or legal services. When these services are contracted, we may disclose your health information to our Business Associate so that they can perform the job we've asked them to do. To protect your health information, we require the Business Associate to agree to safeguard your information.

Notification

We may use or disclose information to notify or assist in notifying a family member, personal representative, or another person responsible for your care. If your information is used for such notification, it would typically be limited to your name, general condition, and location.

Communication from Offices

We may call your home or other designated location and leave a message on voice mail or in person in reference to any items that assist the Practice in carrying out TPO, such as appointment reminders, insurance items and any call pertaining to your clinical care. We may mail to your home or other designated location any items that assist the Practice in carrying out TPO, such as appointment reminder cards and patient statements. If you choose to provide an email account to us or communicate with us via email, we will reply to you via email or communicate other information needed to assist the Practice in carrying out TPO, such as appointment reminder cards and patient statements. Before using email to communicate with us, you should understand that there are certain risks associated with the use of email. It may not be secure and messages can easily be misdirected. Text messaging presents similar risks. If you choose to contact us via text messaging, we may respond to you in the same manner or choose to refrain from text messaging with you, or otherwise limit the information included if we are not able to verify your identity. Additionally, you should understand that use of email and/or other electronic communications is not intended to be a substitute for professional medical advice, diagnosis or treatment and should never be used in a medical emergency.

Communication with Family

Unless you object or in the health professional's best judgment, we may disclose your health information to a family member or friend to the extent of their involvement in your care or payment related to your care.

Health Information Exchanges

The Villages Health participates in one or more health information exchanges ("HIE") that allow us to share information that we obtain or create about you with other health care providers or other health care entities, for your treatment or otherwise as permitted by law. For example information about your past medical care and current medical conditions and medications can be available to us or to your other health care providers, if they participate in the same HIE. You will have the chance to opt-in to participate in the HIE before your information is shared.

Open Treatment Areas

We will implement reasonable safeguards to protect your information. However, sometimes patient care is provided in an open treatment area. While special care is taken to maintain patient privacy, some patient information may be incidentally overheard by others while receiving treatment. Should you be uncomfortable with this, please bring this to the attention of our Privacy Officer or your health care provider.

Research

We may disclose information to researchers when their research has been approved by an institutional review board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your health information.

Funeral Directors

We may disclose health information to funeral directors consistent with applicable law to carry out their duties.

Organ Procurement Organizations

Consistent with applicable law, we may disclose health information to organ procurement organizations or other entities engaged in the procurement, banking or transplantation of organs for the purpose of tissue donation and transplant.

Marketing & Fundraising

We may contact you to provide information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that we provide that may be of interest to you. However, for services that are not provided by us and are not related to your treatment, or that are otherwise considered "marketing" under HIPAA, we would first obtain your authorization for this type of communication. We may also use your information for fundraising purposes. If we do contact you for fundraising activities, you will have an opportunity to opt out of such communications. If you prefer to opt-out now and not be contacted for fundraising efforts, you may submit your request to opt-out in writing to the practice where you signed your authorization, or to our Privacy Officer at the address listed at the end of this Notice.

Food and Drug Administration (FDA)

We may disclose to the FDA health information relative to adverse events with respect to food, supplements, product and product defects, or post marketing surveillance information to enable product recalls, repairs or replacement.

Public Health

As required by law, we may disclose your health information to public health or legal authorities charged with preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability.

Law Enforcement

We may disclose health information for law enforcement purposes as required by law or in response to a valid subpoena.

Federal law makes provision for your health information to be released to an appropriate health oversight agency, public health authority or attorney, provided that a work force member or business associate believes in good faith that we have engaged in unlawful conduct or have otherwise violated professional or clinical standards and are potentially endangering one or more patients, workers or the public.
